

CELEBRATE BLACK HISTORY

featuring

African Culture Connection

DATE, LOCATION, AND TIME:

Thursday February 21
Lakeside Coffee Shop Stage • Noon

ABOUT THE EVENT:

African Culture Connection is an Omaha-based nonprofit 501(c)3 organization founded by Charles Ahovissi, a professional dancer, drummer, performer, choreographer, stage costume designer and tailor from Benin, West Africa.

Founded in 2006, the organization offers residency programs and performances led by professional artists, including master dancers, drummers and storytellers from the United States and abroad who are passionate about traditional African dance, music, and visual arts. Their presentations are engaging and dynamic, imparting an appreciation and respect for African culture. ACC's programs and performances are designed to supplement traditional approaches to learning and encourage others to learn about the positive contributions diverse cultures make to society.

Email wilma.jackson@doane.edu with any questions.

DOANE
UNIVERSITY

MULTICULTURAL SUPPORT SERVICES